Introduction:	Where did you live before coming to the U.S.? How old were you when you came to the U.S.? Did you come to the U.S. alone or with family? How much English did you know before coming to the U.S.?
What happened (details):	What month did you arrive? Was is hot or cold? What city did you arrive in? Were friends or family waiting to meet you, or was everyone a stranger? What was strange to you? Was anything familiar or common to you?
What is happening in your life now(details):	How is your life today different than your first few days in America? What is one thing you have learned about American culture that surprised you?

What do you want to happen in your life in the future (details):	What is one thing you would like to do in the next six months? What is one thing you would like to do before you die? What do think about the future of your first country? What do you think about the future of America?
Conclusion:	What was difficult about coming to America? What is very good about living in America right now? What advice would you tell people who want to come to America? Finish this sentence: If my friend wanted to come to America, I would tell them ...